No. 36, s. 2022

CRAFTING OF A CONTEXTUALIZED CURRICULUM IN NATURAL DYEING AND LOCAL EMBROIDERY

To: Asst. Schools Division Superintendent
Curriculum and Implementation Division
Education Program Supervisors
School Head
Teachers
All Concerned

1. The results of the just conducted ethnographic researches on Natural Dyeing and, Local Embroidery need incorporation, and or integration in the K-12 Curriculum, particularly the Senior High School, under the Technical Vocational Track TVL. The incorporation of the Indigenous Knowledge, Skills, and Practices-IKSPs necessitates the preservation, and enhancement of the Inlaud culture. Relative to the aforementioned, a Workshop on the Crafting of a Contextualized Curriculum in Dyeing and Local Embroidery will be conducted on December 19-21, 2022, at Eco-Lodge Hotel, located at Magsaysay Road, Baguio City.

2. The objectives of the activity are;

- A. To craft a contextualized curriculum in natural dyeing, and local embroidery, by utilizing the results of the conducted researches.
- B. To identify, and contextualize the content standards for the special target curriculum/subject.
