Division Memorandum

No. 414 s. 2023

CONDUCT OF DIVISION COMPETITION ON READ-A-THON

1. The Schools Division of Abra will be conducting the Read-A-Thon (English) competition to Grades 3, 6, and 10. The general purpose of such activity is to assess the extent of teaching and learning in schools. Thus, the teaching of reading is exemplified, and strengthened. The winners in the Division level competition will represent the SDO- Abra in the upcoming regional academic festival of talents competition. The competition will be conducted on December 9, 2023 at Lagayan Central School, Lagayan, Abra.
2. Participants to this activity will be all first placers in the conducted district level competitions in the three (3) main events, (Story Retelling- Grade 3, Oral Reading Interpretation 6, and Oratorical Composition and Presentation- Grade 10). It is expected therefore that all the districts have already conducted their competitions, so that all first placers in the 3 events specified above, together with their coaches are qualified to participate in the event.
3. Expenses in participating the division Read- A- Thon event will be charged to schools' MOOE or any other source available.
4. Participation of all districts, including secondary schools in the area is earnestly encouraged.
5. The activity is scheduled on a Saturday, therefore teacher coaches, and members of the Technical Working Committee will be given service credits, and COCs respectively.
